

BEAUTIFUL CAPE COD & THE ISLANDS
HISTORIC BOSTON & PLYMOUTH

Including Martha's Vineyard and Nantucket!

JUNE 15-22, 2008

Come join us on this wonderful trip to the New England area- see the historical sights that made Boston so famous in American history and spend time in beautiful Cape Cod exploring the enchanting islands of Martha's Vineyard and Nantucket! Three nights in Boston and four nights on the Cape.....time to see and do so much!

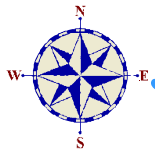

Take a fun 'Duck' tour in Boston as well as a walking tour, visit the Old North Church, view Paul Revere's home, take the Boston Movie Mile Tour and free time to explore or walk the Freedom Trail, take a ride on the Swan Boats, shop along Newbury Street or go to the top of the Prudential Tower for a panoramic view of the city. Don't forget to shop at Quincy Market and Faneuil Hall Marketplace! It is a treat!

We'll have a guided tour of Plymouth, see the famous Plymouth Rock and America's 'hometown' on our way to Hyannis on Cape Cod. The 'Cape' has 15 towns as well as the two famous islands you hear a lot about- Nantucket and Martha's Vineyard -which we explore! See what is so enchanting about the 'Cape' from tip to tip including Provincetown, as well as the two islands and we get to enjoy a dune ride that features a Sunset Clam Bake- a fabulous way to end our vacation - watch a gorgeous sunset while you sit on the beach and feast on a traditional clambake featuring New England clam chowder, steamed clams/mussels, steamed lobster, red bliss potatoes and corn on the cob! A perfect ending to a great vacation.....

Itinerary

SUNDAY, JUNE 15, 2008 Boston

Welcome to the historic capital of Massachusetts – Boston – where American history comes to life on every corner. You will arrive at Logan International Airport and then make your way to the Midtown Hotel (5 miles from Logan) and located in Boston's historic Back Bay neighborhood. From the hotel you can walk to the Prudential Center, Copley Place, Newbury Street shops and cafes, Symphony Hall, the Theatre District and a multitude of fine dining establishments.

Tonight a welcome dinner will get us all acquainted and it's a great way to get the week started! (D)

MONDAY, JUNE 16, 2008 Boston

After breakfast at the hotel we'll meet our guide in the lobby to begin our day of exploring. There is no better way to begin your tour of Boston than on a Duck Tour. As you drive through the city your "ConDUCKtor" will be giving you lots of little known facts, legends and interesting insights. You will view diverse forms of architecture, historic landmarks and the highlight of the tour is your 'splash' into the Charles River for a breathtaking waterside view of Boston.

The rest of the day is free for you to explore on your own. Walk the Freedom Trail, take a ride on the Swan Boats, shop along Newbury Street or go to the top of the Prudential Tower for a panoramic view of the city.

Dinner is at leisure tonight...maybe a local restaurant with new friends from the group. (B)

TUESDAY, JUNE 17, 2008 Boston

After breakfast you have free time to do what you want to see and do- discover the city on your own or meet your guide in the lobby to travel the Green Line (subway system) to the historic North End. Here you will visit the Old North Church, view Paul Revere's home and walk the narrow main streets filled with pastry and wine shops, gelaterias, ristoranti, trattorias and more... also you have to shop at Quincy Market and Faneuil Hall Marketplace.

This afternoon you could visit one of Boston's great museums – The Museum of Science, Museum of Fine Arts, Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum or the New England Aquarium. Lots to see and do! (B)

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 18, 2008 Boston-Plymouth-Cape Cod

After breakfast, we check out of our hotel and meet our bus which will drop us off in downtown Boston for a fun-filled morning of touring. Venture out on Boston's Movie Mile Tour – here you will enjoy learning about the movies and television shows that have been filmed in over 30 locations in the city.

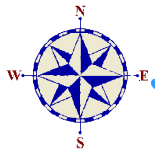

After the tour we head south to America's hometown – Plymouth. You will stop at the Forefather's Monument, the Plymouth Rock and at the Mayflower II. Walk along the historic waterfront area and have free time for lunch and shopping.

Continue on to the sandy shores of Cape Cod. Your guide will assist with check-in at the Holiday Inn Hyannis. Relax and freshen up before dinner tonight in a local restaurant. (B,D)

THURSDAY, JUNE 19, 2008 Cape Cod-Martha's Vineyard

After breakfast, your guide will meet you at the hotel to escort you to the Hy-Line Docks for ticketing and boarding of the high speed ferry to the storybook island of Martha's Vineyard. Upon arrival you will board a local bus for a Down Island Tour. Learn about the history of the island as you travel throughout the townships. There will be free time for lunch and shopping in Edgartown. View the gingerbread cottages in Oak Bluffs before you return to Hyannis on the late afternoon ferry.

Dinner is on your own tonight. There are numerous restaurants within walking distance of the hotel for you to enjoy. (B)

Cape Cod-Nantucket

After breakfast, your guide will meet you at your lodging to escort you to the Hy-Line Docks for ticketing and boarding of the high speed ferry to the stunning island of Nantucket. Upon arrival your guide will point out the shops, museums and restaurants that are within walking distance of the dock area for your time on your own. Enjoy a one hour narrated Nantucket Island Tour at a time to be specified by your guide. (Please remember to wear comfortable walking shoes as the streets and sidewalks are lined with bricks and cobblestones). You will have free time for lunch and shopping. Depart on the late afternoon ferry for your return trip to Hyannis.

Dinner with friends from the group tonight is at your leisure. (B)

SATURDAY, JUNE 21, 2008

Cape Cod-Provincetown-Sunset Clam Bake

Breakfast at the hotel and then the morning is free for you to enjoy the pool or perhaps do some last minute shopping or exploring. Grab a quick bite to eat for lunch before your afternoon tour.

This afternoon our guide will meet us at the hotel for our last day of touring together. Today you will explore the real Cape Cod as you wind along scenic Route 6A. This is a beautiful road filled with wonderful examples of colonial life – architecture, village greens, churches, windmills, peeks of Cape Cod Bay and more...

We'll stop at the Cape Cod National Seashore Visitors Center and will view a lighthouse. As you journey to "Land's End" – Provincetown- you will be surrounded by sand dunes and the ocean. "P-town" is a unique destination with a rich history that combines a love of the sea and the arts. You will have free time to explore the waterfront and the narrow main streets that are filled with an eclectic variety of shops, galleries and restaurants. Today's highlight is a Dune Ride that features a Sunset Clam Bake- what a fun way to end our vacation – watch a gorgeous sunset while you sit on the beach and feast on a traditional clambake featuring New England clam chowder, steamed clams/mussels, steamed lobster, red bliss potatoes and corn on the cob! A perfect ending to a great vacation... (B, D)
